

Life Science

Life Science Certificate course on vermitechnology was conducted for the first year B.Sc. students to develop effective and low cost techniques for recycling organic wastes and to produce the biofertilizer - vermicompost with rich nutrient status.

An outreach programme was conducted for I B.Sc. and II B.Sc. students to create a platform for the students through which they can improve their communicative skills on 30th August 2019.

A two day field work based workshop on exploring the flora and fauna at Shringeri was organised in the month of November 2019 for III B.Sc. students. The activity was conducted to understand the ecology of plants and animals in their natural habitats.